

Final Assignment

Deadline:1/7 23:55

Dynamic Website development

Create a website based service provide several user experience design. You should design at least 2 type of user roles in this project. Admin user is able to create/update/list/delete data of the website in the admin dashboard. Visitor is able to register/sign in/sign out their user account the website, and even interact with the data that is created by the admin user, for example: visitor might be able to make comment or rating in each article.

You could use any technical service, framework or libraries to help you design this project, and using Firebase to design this project is not a necessary option.

You can use all kinds of creativity to design this project, For examples: film review website, e-commerce website, event information website, travel website or blog, etc.

Requirement

1. Design 2 type of user role
2. Admin dashboard with create/update/list/delete function
3. Visitor is able to register/sign in/sign out their account
4. Visitor is able to interact with the data that is created by the admin user
5. Your website demo video (explain your website function)
6. Your website documentation (how to use your website)
7. Push your website on github and publish it (ref:<https://youtu.be/FJEiNxLxE-E>)

Scoring

1. Feature (25%)
2. Design (25%)
3. Creativity (25%)
4. Difficulty (25%)